Dear Andy,

I hope you don't MIND ME SIGNING YOUR BOOK. I DON'T really know you,
you know (I'm fond of commo'is), (compliment of Mr. Bernstein)
Life is nice huh?
UNTIL I PUT MY CURSE
ON YOU. Take life easy. Good Luck in all you do.

Love ya,
Carol B.

To Andy,
So a real, sweet girl and a great artist. Best of luck in the future and all that you do.
Andy (4th period)

To Andrea,
my history buddy.
You're a real sweet girl and I wish you
the best of luck in the future. "Sub. ya"
Gloria

Oh Andy,

Oh a real sweet girl with a nice personality. Good luck to you in your future.

Barbara Mosser

Andy,

To a real wonderful gal. Good luck in the art field - hope ya make millions.

Lots of love,
Alvina Craft

dedication

"Blueberries" . . . "Science Club" . . . "years of devoted service" . . .

As soon as these phrases are mentioned, one thinks of Mrs. Mary Petro to whom the PANORAMA ANNUAL staff dedicates this yearbook. Acting as the representative of the thousands of students she has helped in her English classes and through her untiring work as Science Club advisor, we hope that we can adequately express our heartfelt thanks and sincerest best wishes to Mrs. Petro.

A LEAF

by: Rosalyn Ryan

Gracefully gliding, Dipping and turning,
A spot of color,
A piece of warmth,
This simple leaf
Comes to rest
On Nature's waters.
A moment's pause—
Acquaintance made—
Their paths entwine.

I'll take this one . . .

Portrait artist available . . .

Art and food mix . . .

We speak our peace . . .

Music makers par excellence!

Official business . . .

A helping hand . . .

Money-Money-Money-

Hard working Pan members?

Our G.O. President?

Barbara VonOpel of Chenango Valley Junior-Senior High School is at left. Alice Marie Keller of BCHS is right.

Made it finally!

TRANSITION

By: Anne Okoniewski

The sun sets behind banks of clouds
Purple and gold and white,
A rainbow of color,
A myriad of forms,
Linked together by light.

The sun is gone
The earth grows still—Silently comes the night.

With Howard Bernstein is Francine Ellis of Johnson City High School.

A visual tribute . . .

The last waiting time . . .

Now I'm the teacher . . .

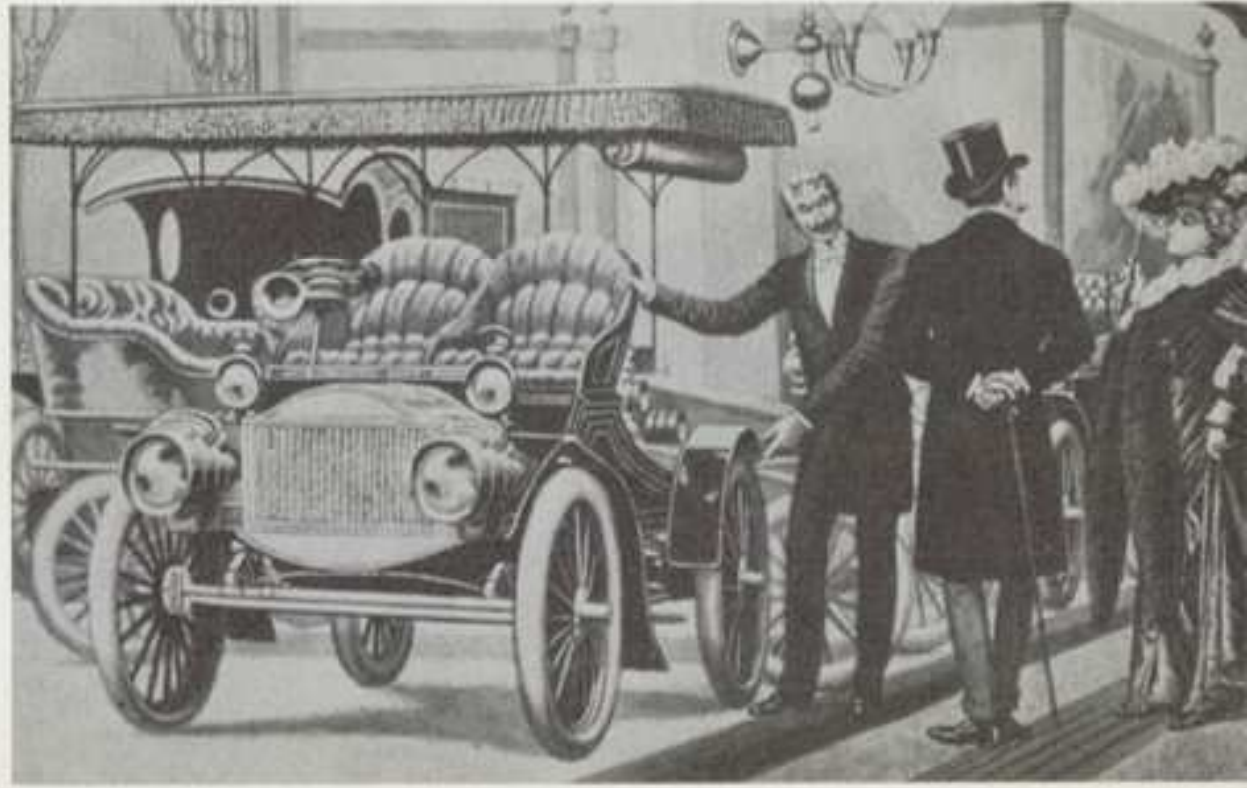

All that effort . . .

"the Haggerty-Forbes award for 1908 . . ."

"those inter-club meetings really swing . . ."

"but does it have dual controls?"

"she fouled me . . ."

"Extra point for the pinboy . . ."

Knocks . . .

When opportunity knocks, the person who is prepared for it usually moves ahead. There's no better preparation for your future opportunities than the learning of individual financial responsibility. And there's no better place to learn financial responsibility than a bank. Whether it's a savings' account, checking account or other business transaction, your association with a bank can work to your advantage.

THE THEME

This year's Pan Annual is a mixture of old and new. The Theme, "Then and Now," has been carried throughout the book by means of photographs, drawings, and designs.

The Pan Annual Staff hopes that it has given you a true picture of Central—as it was and as it is.

To a real sharp kid good luck
in the future
always remember the fun
we have had in swim
Claire

To a real sweet kid with a sharp personality. We've had a lot of fun for the last three years and I hope it won't change. Got's of luck
Love Always,
Mike

To a real sweet kid. Remember the fun we had in English. Good luck in the future & with Mike

To a real sweet kid,
we've had loads of fun in gym & swim. Always stay as sweet as you are Andy. Hope you'll always remember me.
Mary (Pinky)

Andy,
you're one of my best friends and I hope we always will be.
The fun. Love ya,
